OUTCOMES FROM PREVIOUS MEETING

The last residential council meeting was on Wednesday 24th May 2023. Outcomes from the meeting include:

- TV/Internet access should have been sorted now. RM was notified and came to the houses to sort this.
- Pyjama day happened on Thursday 15th June 2023.
- Humber bridge walk – went really well, everyone engaged.
- Resi camp went ahead as planned.

MEETING MINUTES

Welcome

Netflix/internet

NK: Still some issues with the Netflix and internet. DG asked if they could take a photo of what appears on the screen and this can be forwarded onto RM.

PJ Day

PJ day was a success with a lot of students and staff wearing their PJs.

ID: had three sets of PJ's ready, unicorn onesie. Heart PJs and shorts and t-shirts, choose the unicorn onesie.

RB: wore his batman one

Residential Camp

What was your best bit and one thing you will remember from residential camp?

ID: going on the big one ride at Blackpool pleasure beach.

JW: enjoyed all of it

NK: the inflatable assault course looked really good.

Summer plans

Summer plans discussed; ID going to Butlins, Flamingo Land and London for birthday.

JW: Lots of sleeping

NK: Spain

RESIDENTS COUNCIL MEETING

ID: don't like showers, prefers baths, could we get an inflatable bath. I have seen one for £20. It sits in the bottoms of the shower and has a plug/drain to rinse out.

JW: The running of the resi tuck shop, who's in charge of this?
